Foreword

1950

As you turn through the pages of this book, may you wander once more through the memories of the past years, recalling the happiest hours, the most familiar scenes, and the most valued friends. May the pictures which we have chosen help to make your memories more vivid throughout the passing years.

To the students, faculty members and business people, we wish to express our gratitude for your co-operation and support.

May you cherish throughout the years this annual which will recall many pleasant memories of the activities of the Roosevelt School during the year of 1949-1950.

Dedication

IN MEMORY OF MRS. G. H. TAYLOR

With bowed heads we dedicate this annual to a warm friend, Mrs. G. H. Taylor. She was a former Room Mother of the Senior Class and was never happier than when she was engaged in helping and enjoying her friends.

To Mrs. Taylor, in her passing on January 3, 1950, we share with the poet the sentiment that —"She is not dead

But sleeps; and soon she will arise and take Me by the hand. I know
she will awake
And smile on me as she did yesterday.
And she will have some gentle word to say,
Some kindly deed to do;
for loving thought
Was warp and woof of which her life was wrought.—"

Superintendent's Message

Dear Students,

You have been working with me for the past few years in this school. If we have done our part, then this should be a better school than it was when you and I began our work here. If it isn't a better school, then we have fallen down in our job and our time and efforts have been largely wasted. I believe that with your cooperation we do have a better school. But let us not be content to let it remain as it now is. Let's make it better by improving its weaknesses and strengthening its merits. Are you proud of your school, and is your school proud of you.

Seniors of 1950, Congratulations for this splendid annual and for your every efforts in making this a better school. May you reap the kind of life that is deserving of the seed that you have sown during your school days. Best wishes to each of you.

Sincerely,

Marvin Williams

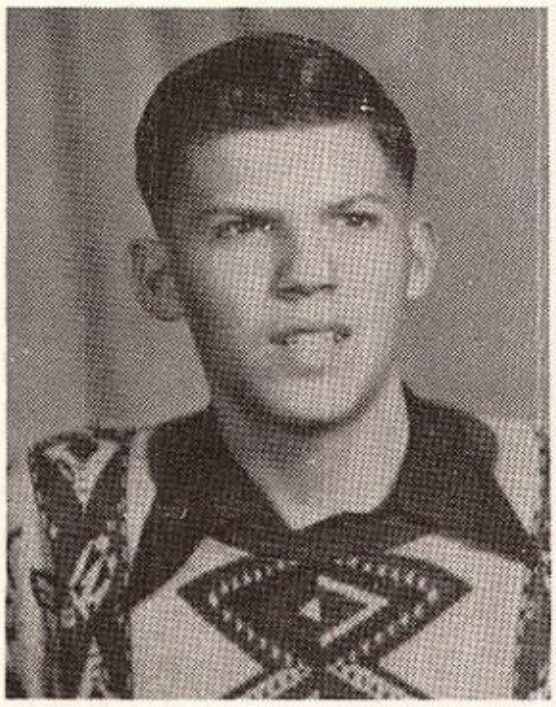
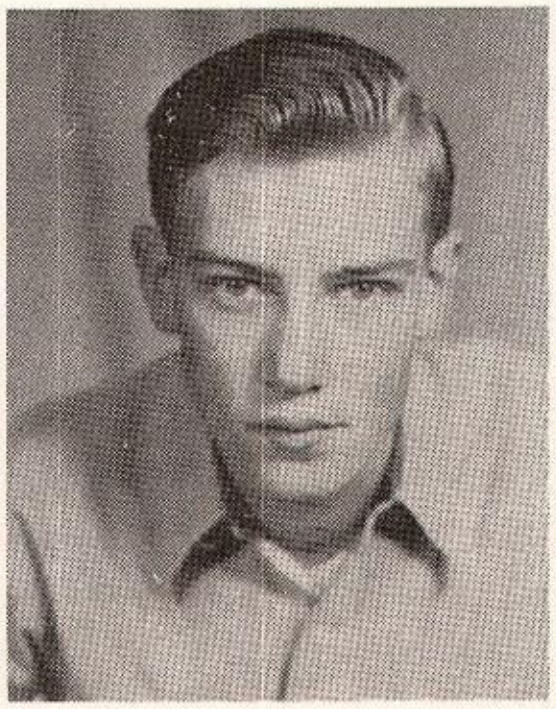
ALICE ARMSTRONG

Here, chickens take my shorthand.

JOHNNY BALIOS

Don't need aspirins, History is over.





TONY BALIOS

There's no day like the last day of school.

JIM BOB BESSENT

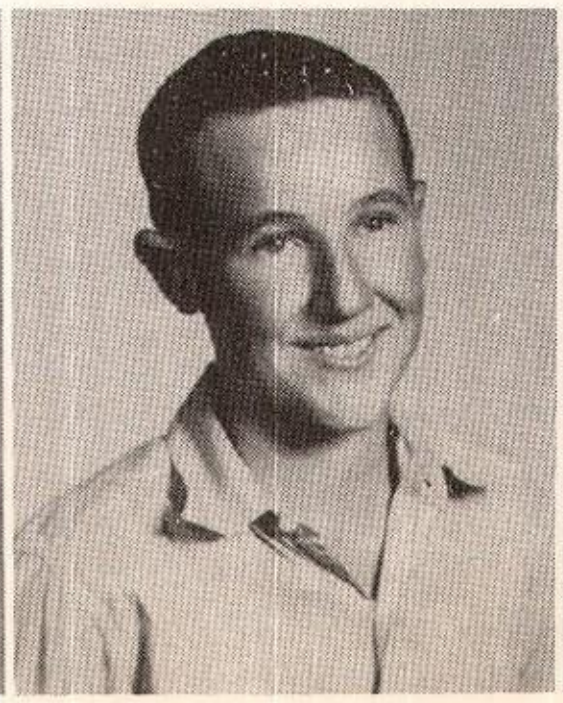
No more bookkeeping!

DEVELL BROWN

We're turning it over to the Juniors.

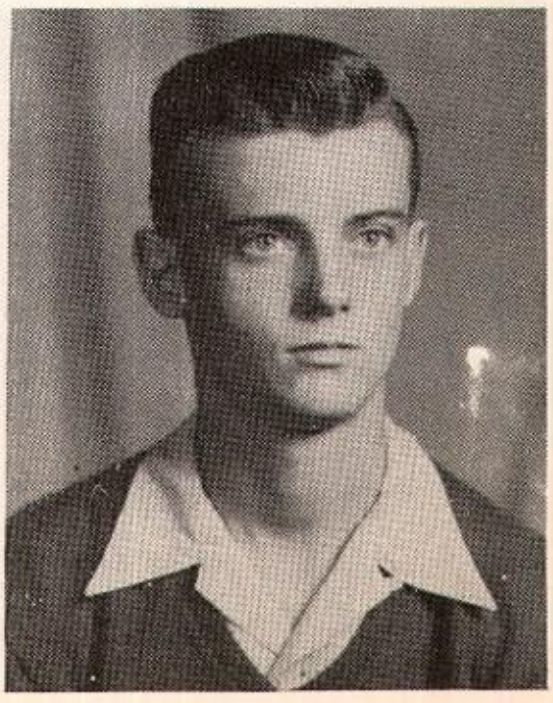
BOBBY COOPER

"My little gray Ford".



CARROL CURRY

Never look back or plan ahead.

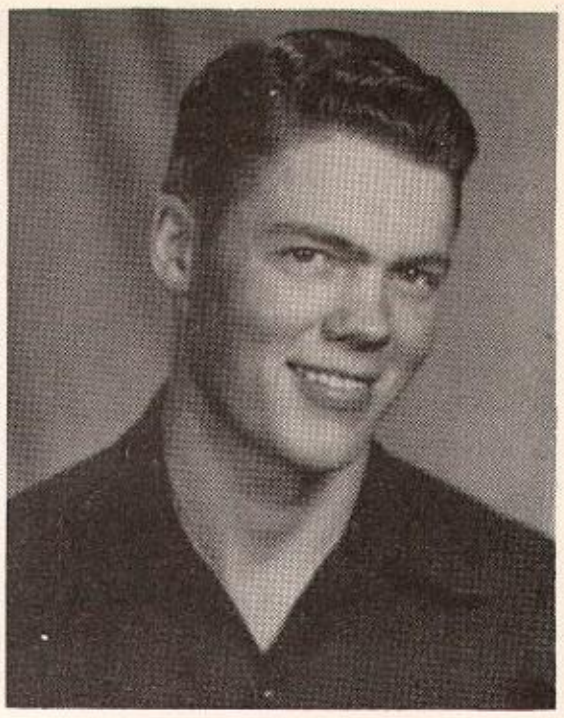


MINTA ANN GAMMILL

Life gets teejus.

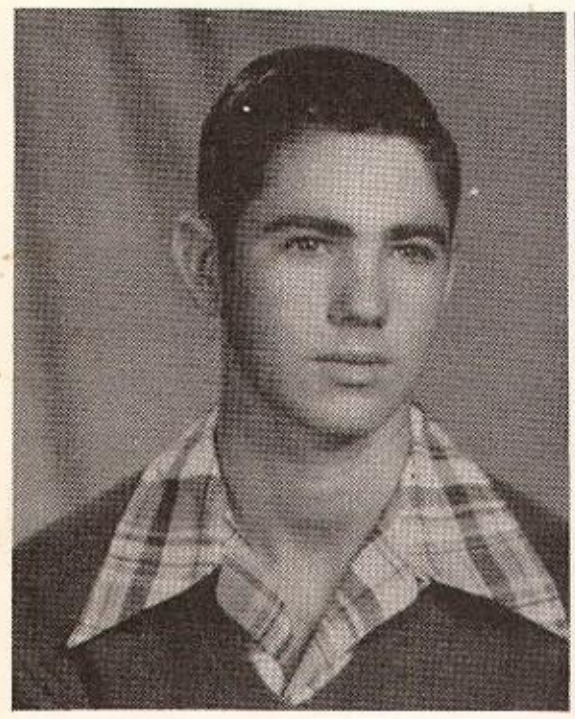
PAUL HAMMETT

No more lectures in the hall.



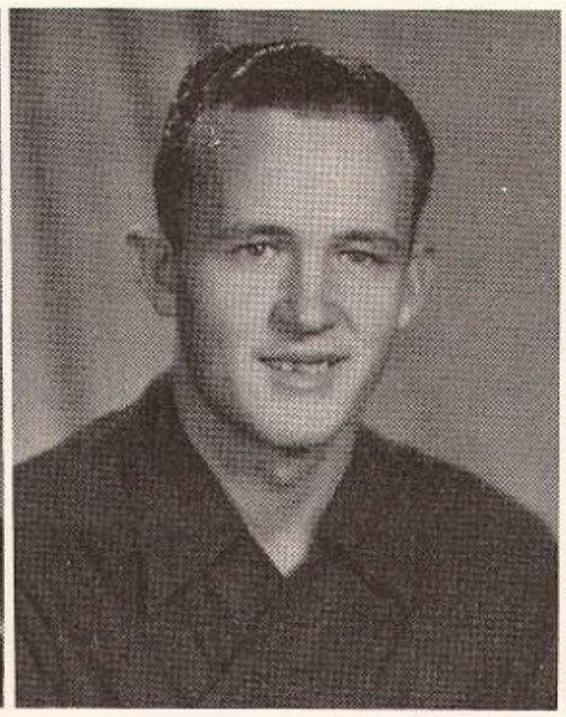
JIMMY HOLMES

It pays to lie once in a while.



JOE DON HOUCHIN

Don't itch for success, scratch for it.



JUNE HUEY

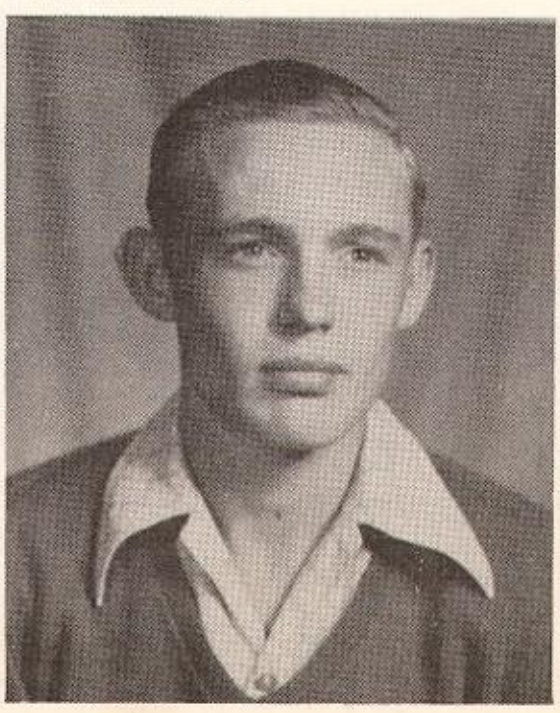
I'm all mixed up.

ROY DALE MCCALLISTER

Look forward to tomorrow, yesterday is past.

KENNETH MCCALLISTER

I don't mind working, I just can't find time.



MARILYN MOORE

No more ambition, I'm graduating.

GEARLDEN RAILSBACK

Never give up when there is hope.

BETH ROGERS

Whats a penny made out of? Copper!

ANDRELLITA MENDOZA

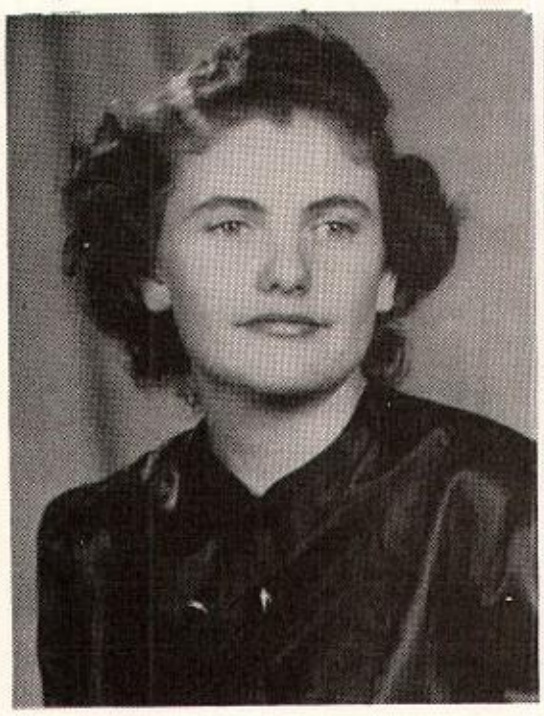
With every rose there's a thorn.

IRENE MENDOZA

Peace at last!

MARGARET RUCKER

Just call me "Red".



MARTHA TAYLOR

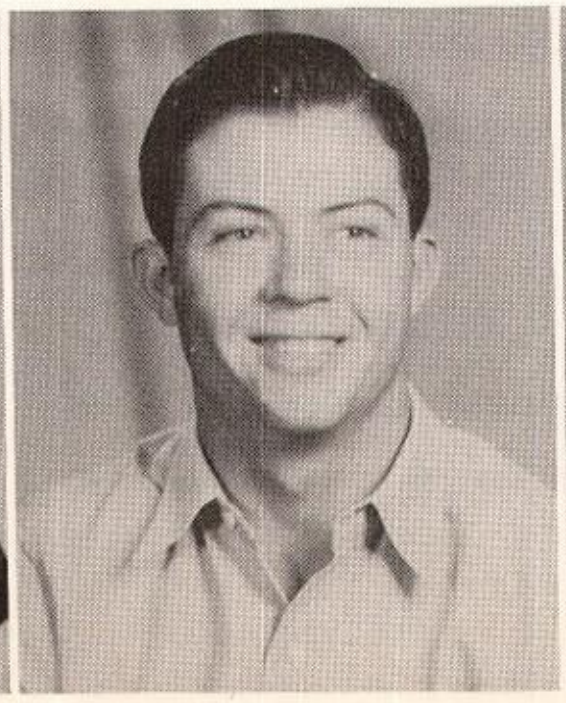
I'm not lazy, I just don't like to work.

BILLY JOE WEIR

Don't trouble trouble, Till trouble troubles you.

MARIE YOUNG

Boys are my favorite hobby.



Last Will And Testament

The class of 1950 of the High School of Roosevelt, having come to our last hours in our right mind (?) and in peace with all the world, do hereby give, bequeath and devise all our wordly goods and possessions to the following beneficiaries, to-wit:

To Mrs. Owen, I, Alice Armstrong, leave all my worn out typewriter and lead pencil erasers.

To Robert Miller, I, Johnny Balios leave you all of my girlfriends.

To my little brother Jimmy, I, Tony Balios leave the responsibility of consuming all the candy still unconsumed in various desks, drawers, etc.

To Joe Jack, I, Jim Bob Bessent leave you my bashfulness.

To Mrs. Bullock, I, DeVell Brown leave you my ability to empty the school room in three minutes by singing "Quick Silver".

To you, Joe Bill, I, Carrol Curry leave you my ability to torment the Roosevelt faculty.

To Suzy Hettler, I, Minta Ann Gammill, leave to you my place on the Rusty Heel's team.

To the coming Seniors, I, Paul Hammett, do will and bequeath my well-known ability to talk back in self defense.

To Mrs. May, I, Jon Don Houchin, leave by most efficient reading glasses, with which she will be able to discover errors in the "Eagle".

I, June Huey, will my dainty feet, my crankiness, my occassional lapses in good conduct, and my red hair to Nelda Kay Rogers.

I, Sam Jordan, will to Rayburn Clark my jolly nature, my bass voice, and my ability to make friends.

To Wayne Sherrod, I, Roy Dale McCallister bequeath my place as year-book editor. Heres to you in "62".

To the following students forever, I, Kenneth McCallister bequeath the right of passing opinions upon the teachers.

To Mr. Wood, I, Jimmy Holmes leave my well-known ability to tell a story and leave off the knob.

To Gwen Gallahar, I, Andrellita Mendoza will my quietness, my poise and my business like ways.

To Frankie Payne, I, Irene Mendoza will my short body and long black hair.

To Doris Sides, to be disposed of as she sees fit, I, Marilyn Roy Moore give and bequeath all the tears shed in past exams.

To Clarice Walker, I, Gearlden Railsback leave my little address book with all the names of faraway boys I correspond with.

To LaHonda Keeler, I, Beth Rogers, leave my well-known giggle, which was in turn bequeathed to me "47" by LeVern Burleson.

To D'Aun Weaver, I, Margaret Rucker leave my place as captain of the Basketball team.

To Mrs. Usry, I, Martha Taylor leave all my "book reports".

To Edsel Speer, I, Billy Joe Weir, leave my black wavy hair.

To Cherry Ralston, I, Marie Young give and bequeath my Senior desks and all the boyfriends of the ages upon it.

To the whole Roosevelt school, we leave our quietness. You will need it with the new "inter-communication system".
